The Following comments were received:

"Some parents need to teach their children not to use swear words"

"Very supportive environment"

"Thank you for your support and guidance... You have been exceptional in your efforts".

"Excellent wrap around care and caring staff throughout".

"I am very happy with this school. My child has progressed a lot thanks to the school and the whole team who have had patience with him".

"Thank you for your continued support of...."

"Since moving ..... to St Anne's we have noticed such a brilliant transformation in the way .... learns – 'it is fun but I still learn' This school is a breath of fresh air and everybody is so lovely. We can't wait for her younger brother ..... to join his school journey at this fantastic school".

"Work books sent home for homework is not fed back on or corrected and is put in the bin as seen by my child".

"If my child can change the reading books whenever she wants they will be excellent. I ha a word the class teacher...my kid doesn't want to read the same book every day....if your school can change this policy that will be excellent".

I have asked for extra homework for 4 months and that is the reason why I only agree on some questions".

".... And .... Like St Anne's Primary School. I am confident the school provides good quality education".

"Excellent and Manageable".

"My girls are wonderfully happy at St Anne's. Thank You".

"So happy that ....attends St Anne's. Couldn't have chosen better".

"We feel the use of technology (text, E Mails, Aps) would hugely benefit communication with parents and prevent messages being lost in transit".

"Maybe you could inform parents on the Thursday if their child has get a certificate on the Friday for working parents so they could get time off".

"In my opinion St Anne's is by far the best in the borough. Everything about the school is excellent and my daughter looks forward to every day of school life!"

"Sports Day would be a nice idea☺".

"Poor communication".
