Getting Your Child to School Really Matters

Year 1

This week during Science, Year One focused on the features of reptiles and amphibians. They then made their own iguanas out of clay. They focused on making sure their models had scaly skin, bulbous eyes and holes instead of external ears! Fantastic work Year One!

*TODAY, WE LOOKED CLOSELY AT THE
FEATURES OF A REPTILE.*

Year 5

In Year Five they have been using our skills as geographers to explore the Maya civilisation. They used atlases and maps to locate Central American countries and they labelled maps to show where the ancient Maya people lived and where some of the main cities were.
