Remembrance Sunday at Ryecroft Park

Last Sunday, members of the school choir attended a Remembrance Service at Ryecroft Park. It was a very beautiful service and lovely to meet so many members of our local community. Aoife and Taylor laid a wreath on behalf of St Anne's and the choir sang beautifully. Thank you to everybody who was able to attend the service.

Remembrance Work

Key Stage One reflected on the significance of Remembrance Day and produced a beautiful display of work in their shared area.

Tameside Catholic Sports Girls Football Tournament

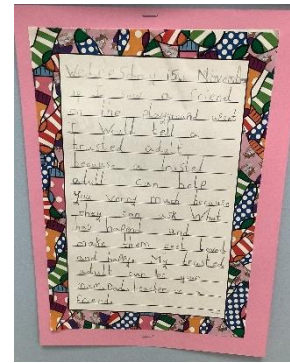

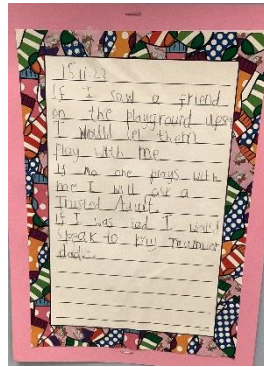

This week our girls football team played in the Tameside Catholic Sports Girls Football Tournament, which was held at St Thomas More RC High School in Denton. Other local Catholic schools attended and the girls won 2 matches, drew 2 matches and lost 1 match. Overall the girls were runners up in the competition and came in second place! Mrs Schilling and Miss Brown were so proud of their efforts and said they were a credit to school.

Earlier this week, Year 4 travelled on the bus into Manchester City Centre. They attended a 'make your own pizza' workshop at Pizza Express and had a wonderful time!
