Family Fun Day at Church

Sunday 30th June is the Family Fun Day at the Church! It really is a lovely event for our families and parisioners. Last year it was fantastic! The Family Fun Day will follow the 10:30am Mass. There will be a bouncy castle, children's games, raffle/tombola, hot & cold Food (to eat in or take away), face painting ... and more. The Church does need raffle prizes (for adults and children). Any donations can be left at the back of church over the next few weeks. Everybody is welcome at our Summer Fun Day - Admission is free! It would be lovely to see you there!

Father's Day Brunch

Yesterday afternoon our wonderful PFA led a Father's Day Brunch on the Key Stage One playground. The turnout was fantastic and it was an amazing afternoon! The feedback from parents has been very positive so thank you to the PFA for arranging such a special afternoon.

Key Stage One Football

Our Key Stage One football team worked so hard on Tuesday evening and secured second place in the Tameside Catholic Sports tournament! They won each of the games in their group and got through to the final, narrowly missing out on first place by 2 goals. Well done Key Stage One-you were a credit to school and to your families!

Geography in Year Four

Year 4 worked very hard on our "Landmarks Challenge". The children has to classify European landmarks as being natural or man-made.

Maths in Reception

Reception have been exploring sharing in maths this week. We counted different objects and shared them into equal groups.
